

Ms. Osborne received her Masters of Education in Special Education from UNC-Chapel hill. She has been a special education teacher for children and adolescents with various disabilities and a Research Associate and Coordinator with the North Carolina Early Diagnosis of Autism Longitudinal Study, for the University of Chicago and the University of Michigan. She is Assistant Director of the TEACCH Supported Employment Program and an Adolescent/Adult Therapist for the Greensboro TEACCH Center. Ms. Osborne has served as Program Administrator/Clinical Supervisor for three grant projects involving transition and employability skills training. She was involved in the development and ongoing supervision of a Project SEARCH program, and was a key author for the TSTEP (TEACCH School to Employment Transition Program). Ms. Osborne has trained audiences both nationally and internationally about the TEACCH model.